The board selected a nominating committee per our bylaws at the July & August meetings.

The nominating committee selects candidates for the positions of officers & board members for the coming year.

Nominations will be announced at the October meeting, October 16th, at the home of Jess & Tony Fritz, in Westminster. At this meeting, nominations from the floor will be accepted. The nominee must be present, and must be an active member in good standing.

At the November meeting (November 20th, at the home of Susan & Van Morfit, in Montgomery Village), elections will take place.

If there are no contests for officer or board posi-
